The Aged Lady Seriously Injured by Pall-Funeral of Mr James O. Clayton-The Circuit Court Meets To Day.

Manchester Bureau. Richard Times
Hill Hell Street. Brattle Block.
Eldridge Wooldridge, a worthy negro man, was accidentally killed last Saturday night near Sheppard's, in Amelia county, while hunting. He went out with his gun and dog after a few birds. While waiking along the field it is supposed the dog jumped on him in a playful manner, in some way the gun was exploded. The whole charge of the weapon entered the unfortunate man's neck, killing him instantly. Wooldridge was about eighteen years of age, and well thought of by the white people of the community, in which he lived.

MR. CLAYTON'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mr. James Q. The funeral of the late Mr. James O. Clayton took place from his late residence, No. 311 Cowardin avenue, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. W. G. Starr, of Richmond, conducted the services. The deceased was buried with Masonio honors, being a member of Manchester Lodge No. 14, A. F. and A. M. and that order taking charge of the remains About twelve months ago Mr. Clayton received serious injuries in an accident on the Richmond and Petersburg railon the Richmond and Petersburg rail-road near Clopton's, he being employed as engineer on that road. He was taken to his home, where his injuries were found to be internal. About six months ago it was thought that he would en-tirely recover, but shortly after that time he was forced to his bed, where for the past three months he had been an intense sufferer. During the latter part of his illness. Mr. Clayton realized his of his iliness, Mr. Clayton realized his condition, and it was his own request that he be sent to Williamsburg, where

NORFOLK, VA. Nov. 14.—Special.— Hon. Warner Miller, ex-senator from New York, reached Norfolk to-day. He is president of the Nicaragua Canal Company, and takes much more interest in that enterprise than he does in the political affairs of the Empire State. He declined to discuss the rumored candidaey of Chauncey M. Depew, but expressed his satisfaction at the election of the Rooseveit ticket.

Mr. Miller is confident that the Nicaragua canal will be built within a very short time gow. He declares that the acquisition of island territories in the Pacific make the canal a prime requisite of the national defence.

The Supreme Court Denies Him a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

CASE OF WIDESPREAD INTEREST.

The Crime for Which He Was Convicted was One of Peculiar Atrocity, His Counsel Made a Stubborn Fight for the Convict's Life.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.-The United States Supreme Court to-day affirmed the judgment of the lower court and denied a writ of habeas corpus to John Andersen, convicted and sentenced to be hanged after a trial in Norfolk, Va., for the murder of the major the Clies Penker. der of the mate of the Olive Pecker.

Chief Justice Fuller in announcing the decision held that Andersen had not been denied a constitutional right in not having counsel of his own choice at the trial.

The court adjourned for two weeks, and when it reassembles will announce the headerstays rule.

bankruptcy rule.

The Andersen case has attracted widespread attention, being a sea tragedy of spread attention, being a sea tragedy of singular atrocity.

STORY OF THE CRIME.

The Schooner Olive Pecker sailed from Boston, laden with lumber, for a point on the River_Platte, Braxill. When 150 miles off the coast of Brazil, Andersen, a Swede, had an altereation with the captain. When the latter retired to the cabin Andersen followed and shot the captain dead. Then he armed himself heavily and went on deck, where, mounted on the forecastie, he terrorized all on board.

The mate, who was aloft, was called down, and while pleading for his life, was shot four times. The crew were ordered to throw the dying mate overboard, and on protesting that he was not dead, were assured that he was "dead enough." This done, the crew were marched below at the point of a pistol and ordered to throw done, the crew were marched sellow at the point of a pistol and ordered to throw the captain overboard. Then Andersen directed that oil be thrown over the lumber, after which the oil soaked ship was set after and the murderous crew took to STUBBORNLY FOUGHT.

STUBBORNLY FOUGHT.

Andersen was apprehended at Bahla, Brazil, and sent north on the United States Gunboat Lancester. He was tried and convicted in the United States court
at Norfolk, where, after a stubborn fight,
he was found guilty and the conviction
was confirmed. was confirmed.

was confirmed.

The last appeal was for a habeas corpus on the ground that Andersen's rights were evaded when the lower court assigned him counsel instead of giving him counsel

him counsel instead of giving nim counsel of his own choice. Chief Justice Fuller, in announcing the court's opinion, said the record of the case showed that no fundamental right had been denied Andersen, but that he had been represented from first to last by able counsel. The time when counsel was not present was at a preliminary hearing of Andersen but this was not used in the of Andersen, but this was not used in th subsequent trial.

The decision of the lower court was affirmed. The effect of this will be to have the execution, which had been stayed, until December 9th next, carried out.

Captains Coming Here,

The captains of the Second regiment will come to Richmond in a few days to check up their property. The rolls are being very promptly made up and all that have come to Major Price
